

The 8-weeks fourth for the third years commenced on 21st of June, 2017. during this period the students are expected to visit various mechanical workshops which will help them develop practical and technical skills. They will also be visiting a number of industries